Carmel's Baby is Heard From

The fatherless little French child adopted by the local Red Cross chapter, is well and happy. Her mother writes as follows:

Dear Madam:

I wish to send you news of your little protegee, which is always of the best. I am greatly touched with the interest which you are showing toward my little one. Sorrow is less bitter when one knows that someone understands and sympathizes.

I thank you for your letter and from the pretty little card, which I find charmingly original and artistic.

I trust that my letter finds you in good health, and I close in sending you, Madame, my most sincere thanks.

Madame Le Moullec
39 Rue des Artistes, Paris

The following reply has been forwarded to Madam Moullec:

My dear Madame:

I have just received your welcome letter. We are always so glad to hear from our little protegee. All of the ladies in Carmel who subscribe, love her.

We are sending you a money order for $5 as a Christmas gift, to use as you think best.

Our young men have arrived in France to aid you in conquering the tyrant, and we have many thousands more in training. The American women are trying to be as courageous as the French.

We hope and pray you and your family will have as happy a Christmas as possible.

WEEKLY GREETING

Truth scarce ever carried it by vote at its first appearance: new opinions are suspected and opposed without other reason but because they are not already common. But truth, like gold, is not the less so for being newly brought out of the mine.—John Locke.

Camouflage

The word incorporated itself into the world's varied vocabulary when the French began painting scenes for their batteries to imitate the scenery in the vicinity; it fooled the aviators of the enemy.

The older and more general French use of the word is to indicate most any sort of deceit or "faking" whereby an illusion or false impression is served.

The word has come to America at a time when it serves admirably to describe the practices of certain elements of this country's population.

We have here, for instance, German propaganda distributors, camouflaging as "peace" societies.

There are cowards suddenly prompted to camouflage as "consciencious objectors."

There are vandals and rioters in the service of the Kaiser camouflaging as the friends of labor.

There are mis-representatives in Congress, moved by pro-Germanism, who give aid to the enemy while camouflaging as "defenders of the Constitution.

There are preachers and editors who proclaim and print disloyalty and sedition, discredit the purposes of the nation, and ridicule the President while camouflaging as "reflectors of public opinion."

This war has to be fought to a finish. Loyalists be on your guard. This camouflage business must not be permitted to mislead the American people.

Our Weekly Recipe

Meat and Pastry Rolls

Small quantity of cold ham, chicken or other meat may be utilized for these. The meat should be chopped fine, well seasoned, mixed with enough savory fat or butter to make it "shape," and form into rolls about the size of a finger. A short dough (made say of a pint of flour, 2 tablespoonsful of lard, 1 teaspoonful of baking powder, salt, and milk enough to mix) should be rolled thin, cut into strips and folded about the meat rolls, care being taken to keep the shape regular. The rolls should be baked in a quick oven until they are a delicate brown color and served hot.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Climatic conditions at Los Angeles were not favorable to Mrs. Peake's health, so that she and the doctor have taken up their residence at San Jose for the present.

The Manzanita Club will, in the near future, give a social affair. A committee is now at work on the matter.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Koch leave for the East, via San Francisco, next Monday. They plan to return here in a year.

Have You Signed the Hoover Pledge?

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 29.—An appeal to the men and women of the State "as Americans, as Californians, and as lovers of your Narion and of humanity" to sign the food pledge was made today by Governor Wm. D. Stephens.

The proclamation readst

"Urged by my sense of patriotic duty to support every effort toward the Nation's victory in the struggle now being waged on land and sea, I appeal to the women and the men of California to at once sign the food pledge of the Federal Food Administration.

"These pledges will be presented at every door, they will appear in the newspapers, they will be spoken of in the churches, theatres and moving - picture house. Every agency—Federal, State, county, municipal, public and private, will be used to bring these pledges to your notice. Every woman and every man in California should sign.

"The pledge is a simple one. It merely states that the signer is glad to join the Food Administration in the service of food conservation of our Nation and that the signer accepts membership in the United States Food Administration, pledging herself or himself to carry out the directions and advice of the food administrator in the home, so far as circumstances permit.

". . . unity of American homes arrayed against the enemy will mean certain success."
